To the gatekeepers of the high college elite
I am humbled to proudly here state
That the items below will undoubtedly show
I am fit for the Ivy League eight

My expression is flawless, my writing, exact
(Here, my Pulitzer should get a nod)
I've debated five cases before the high court
At the Model UN, I played God

Fourteen musical groups were the lowest of hoops
That I easily managed to jump
And eleven APs (plus two online degrees)
Gave my lowly 4-0 a nice bump

With just seven sports played (two per season, plus one)
I had time for my new NGO
It's a Kenyan cross-platform cloud marketing suite
With the microfinancing to grow

Yet I'm loath to propose, here at summary's close
There is little more that I can do
If my parents still press (and I sleep somewhat less)
I'll be better in Grade Number 2
